The Khazanah Watan Scholarship is available to academically high-achieving Malaysians with leadership potential who have obtained admission or are already enrolled in an undergraduate or postgraduate degree programme in selected leading universities in Malaysia.
Khazanah Watan Scholarship

The Khazanah Watan Scholarship is a prestigious award for high achievers and talented individuals, providing academic and other forms of training to study at selected leading universities in Malaysia. In addition, the scholarship programme offers candidates with potential work exposure in Government-Linked Companies (GLCs).

The Khazanah Watan Scholarship offers an ideal opportunity for Malaysians with outstanding academic ability and talent, as well as the ambition and drive to play an important role in the growth of the country’s commerce and industry. The scholars will also be part of a leadership development programme that provides industry training and exposure whilst pursuing their studies.

The duration of the scholarship will be for the full course of study, as stipulated in the offer of admission, subject to Yayasan Khazanah’s terms and conditions.

Expectations from Scholars

- Diligently pursue the course of studies agreed and conform to the rules of any organisation in which you work or study;
- Satisfy all coursework, examination and/or dissertation or research requirements;
- Achieve excellent grades throughout the duration of study;
- Serve Khazanah or other approved organisation, subject to the terms and conditions stipulated in the offer letter.
