GE FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT PROGRAM (FMP)

FMP is a premier program that frequently wins accolades in the corporate world. It selects the brightest sparks, fresh from university and grooms them into world-class finance leaders.

The two-year program assigns participants to four 6-month job rotations combined with intensive MBA-style academic training. Each rotation, usually in a different geographical area, focuses on the development of key financial skills.

For more information regarding the program, please see here

Kindly submit your resume to:

Halimaton Attan
Principal Assistant Registrar
Counseling, Career and Disability Section