INFORMATION

1. Applications for extra credit hours are done fully online. Applications are open only for students who have obtained their latest examination results.

2. First Level students (2009/2010 Session) are NOT allowed to apply for extra credit hours.

3. Results of the applications will be released from time to time or latest by 30 December 2009.

4. Students are required to register the course on their own according to the credit hours permitted once the application is approved or at the latest before the end of the add/drop week.

5. Students are allowed to apply for extra credit hours ONCE only. If there are any changes you wish to make on the original application, please contact the respective Academy/Faculty/Centre.

6. If the application has been approved, the course will NOT be registered automatically. Instead, students are responsible to REGISTER ON THEIR OWN the required course.
